JANUARY 2011

In 2011 Flinders Street Baptist Church (FSBC) celebrates 150 years of ministry to the City of Adelaide. In response to Jesus' command in Matthew 22 to 'love the Lord your God' and 'love your neighbour', FSBC has supported social welfare ministry through the West End Mission (now Baptist Care (SA) WestCare) since its inception.

This year, Baptist Care (SA) Inc commences a new era of mission with a role of "extending the life and mission of member churches". The relationship with our churches can now become one of effective partnership, as with FSBC; working together to support and serve those in need within the community.

FEBRUARY 2011

Every year people fleeing violence and political unrest seek refuge outside of their homelands. Despite the significant personal trauma experienced by refugees, they come to Australia with a range of skills and talents and the desire to make a new home and contribute to the life of the community. Baptist Care (SA) Refugee Services works with hundreds of refugees each year, providing a range of innovative services to assist them to overcome the turbulence of re-settlement and create new lives here in South Australia.

A Peer Worker is someone with a mental illness who is living well and is able to support others experiencing mental illness in their recovery journey. Through our Peer Work Program dozens of dedicated people provide living proof that recovery is possible and they offer the most precious gift of all: hope.

“My own mental illness has taught me that life is beautiful and is to be lived and embraced rather than endured. The greatest sadness in life [would be] ... not to have lived one’s own life to full capacity.” – Peer Worker

APRIL 2011

On the eve of the first World War the congregation of the West End Mission (now WestCare) established a soup kitchen and childcare service to assist the many families in the area who were struggling to survive. This was the beginning of what was to become Baptist Care (SA). The outreach was practical and relevant, continuing throughout the years of the Great Depression, the Second World War and through to today. We look forward to continuing to work together with the South Australian Baptist Churches, ministering to those in need.

For some experiencing the harsh reality of life on the streets, WestCare is the only place to call home. We provide meals, blankets, a place to stay, somewhere to wash and do laundry, somewhere to rest and to receive counselling and support.
At the heart of WestCare, people find a true sense of family.

JUNE 2011

Personal independence is greatly treasured in our culture and in our community. We also cherish our homes and living amongst the memories within them. If circumstances beyond our control force us to leave our homes, there is a deep sense of loss and grief. Baptist Care(SA) is committed to expanding its work in community aged care, providing support to older people to assist them to remain in their homes and maintain their independence for as long as possible.

Australian Aboriginal culture is one of the oldest surviving cultures in the world, and yet, despite their resilience, Aboriginal people continue to experience inequality and disadvantage. Baptist Care (SA) continues to strive to provide meaningful and culturally appropriate services to Aboriginal people through the Karpandi Day Centre and other Indigenous specific programs. Our vision for the future includes Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal people working closely together to meet their practical needs while also celebrating and affirming the richness of Aboriginal cultures, customs and traditions.

All children and young people deserve to be cherished, respected and encouraged to dream and to see their dreams come to fruition. Sadly for some, for a variety of reasons, they do not receive sufficient nourishment and support within their family homes to thrive and achieve. Our YouthCare programs provide protection and stability to vulnerable children and young people, helping them to receive a fresh outlook on life and a brighter future.
